

The Hartford News

SPECIAL EDITION

HAPPY VIRTUAL HOLIDAYS!

2020 has been a year like no other and the holidays will be equally unique. While some holiday events will be held live as in years past, most will be online. It won't be the same, but never have we needed the good cheer and fellowship of the holiday season!

In a special edition to be published on Thursday, December 3, The Hartford News will provide a round-up of all that's going on in the Greater Hartford region. Advertising in this special edition is a great way to send your Seasons Greetings out to the region and let them know you're making it through and open for business!
